Beatriz Baptista
WATERCOLOR LIVE PAINTING

ABOUT ME

My name is Beatriz, I'm 20 years old, I'm from Portugal, and I'm currently studying Communication Design at the Faculty of Fine Arts of the University of Porto. How did this project begin? It all started when I began gifting watercolor paintings to my family and friends. Through their reactions, I realized how deeply my art could connect with and touch others.

But why Baptes? Baptes comes from Baptista, my grandmother's surname. She has always supported my dream of pursuing a career in the arts, and this name is a tribute to her. I hope my work reflects the passion I put into every piece. Thank you for being here and for being part of the journey I'm building!

LIVE PAINTING

During your wedding, I will create live watercolor portraits of your guests, each one hand-painted on the spot. More than just a portrait, each painting becomes a meaningful keepsake, a unique reminder of the joy and emotion shared on your wedding day.

My artistic style is soft, elegant, and expressive, capturing the essence of each guest, their posture, and the details of their attire. Rather than creating hyper-realistic portraits, I focus on conveying personality and atmosphere through delicate watercolor illustrations.

This live painting experience not only offers your guests a memorable form of entertainment but also allows them to take home a one-of-a-kind piece of art that will be cherished for years to come.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

1. Guests visit my painting station

My painting station is clearly signposted and easy for guests to find throughout the event.

2. I take a quick reference photo

Guests only need to stop for a few seconds, there's no need to wait while the portrait is being painted.

3. I paint the watercolor portraits

While your guests enjoy the celebration, I create each portrait by hand using watercolor.

4. The portraits are ready during the event

Before the celebration ends, guests can collect their finished watercolor portraits to take home as a unique keepsake.

FAQ's

Do guests need to wait while their portrait is being painted?

No. I simply take a quick reference photo, and they are free to enjoy the rest of the celebration while I paint their portrait.

Can guests be painted together?

Yes. I can create portraits of couples, families, or small groups.

When will the portraits be ready?

All portraits are completed during the event and are ready to be collected before the celebration ends.

Are the portraits realistic?

My style is artistic, elegant, and expressive. Rather than creating hyper-realistic portraits, I focus on capturing each person's essence, personality, and the atmosphere of the moment.

How many portraits can be completed during the event?

The number of portraits depends on the package you choose. On average, I complete 5–6 watercolor portraits per hour, although this may vary slightly depending on the natural flow of the event.

What if more guests would like a portrait than expected?

Portraits are painted on a first-come, first-served basis. If you would like to extend the service on the day, additional hours can be added at a rate of €60 per hour.

How do I book the service?

Your date is secured once the booking deposit has been received.

Is there a travel fee?

Yes. The travel fee depends on the location of your wedding and will be communicated in advance.

Do you require anything from the venue?

Ideally, the venue should provide two tables (one outdoors and one indoors) and two chairs (one for the artist and one for the assistant). This allows the painting station to be set up comfortably and ensures a smooth experience throughout the event.

How is everything prepared on the day?

You don't need to worry about a thing. I will arrive approximately one hour before the service begins to set up my painting station and ensure everything is ready before your guests arrive.

Do you require meals?

For longer events, I kindly ask that two meals be provided, one for the artist and one for the assistant.
